Eugene Lyon Education Fund

Application: 2025 Project Awards

The St. Augustine Archaeological Association (SAAA) is making available up to $1000 to provide support for scholarly activity across all disciplines of archaeology, anthropology, and history relating to St. Augustine or Northeast Florida. Applications will be accepted from students—or anyone involved in such research.

These funds can be used to cover costs associated with:

- Research
- Archaeological fieldwork
- Travel and other expenses connected with presentations at professional meetings.

The entire amount may be given to a single individual or divided among applicants at the discretion of the SAAA Eugene Lyon Educational Award Committee. The application deadline is April 4, 2025.

Use the attached form when applying for funding:

Part A. Basic information - and your project proposal summary that may also be attached on 1-2 separate sheets.

Part B. Budget - please be as clear and detailed as possible concerning costs of the proposed project.

Part C. Reference - from faculty member, employer or community contact familiar with the proposed project; please return this completed reference with your application. If you are unable to include a completed reference, please complete the information at the top of Part C so that we may contact them.

Recipients of Project Awards will be expected to supply a copy of paper or poster related to the funded project – and may be invited to give a presentation at a future meeting of the SAAA. Please submit a copy (.pdf or .docx) of the funding proposal to: staugarch@gmail.com
